Chapter 25

Pickle's Fall

Pickle, your actions against this firm have been criminal.

My assistant has gathered records
of embezzlement
and fraud.

The board has decided,
you're out.

Mr. Pepper

Mayo Nessa

Richard Graves

*scoff

I built this company.
You all let it go to waste.

I'll build another one without your moral limitations. You'll declare bankruptcy within a year.

You haven't beaten
me yet,
cheeseburger.

Whatever helps you sleep at night.

Later that night...

Who's there?

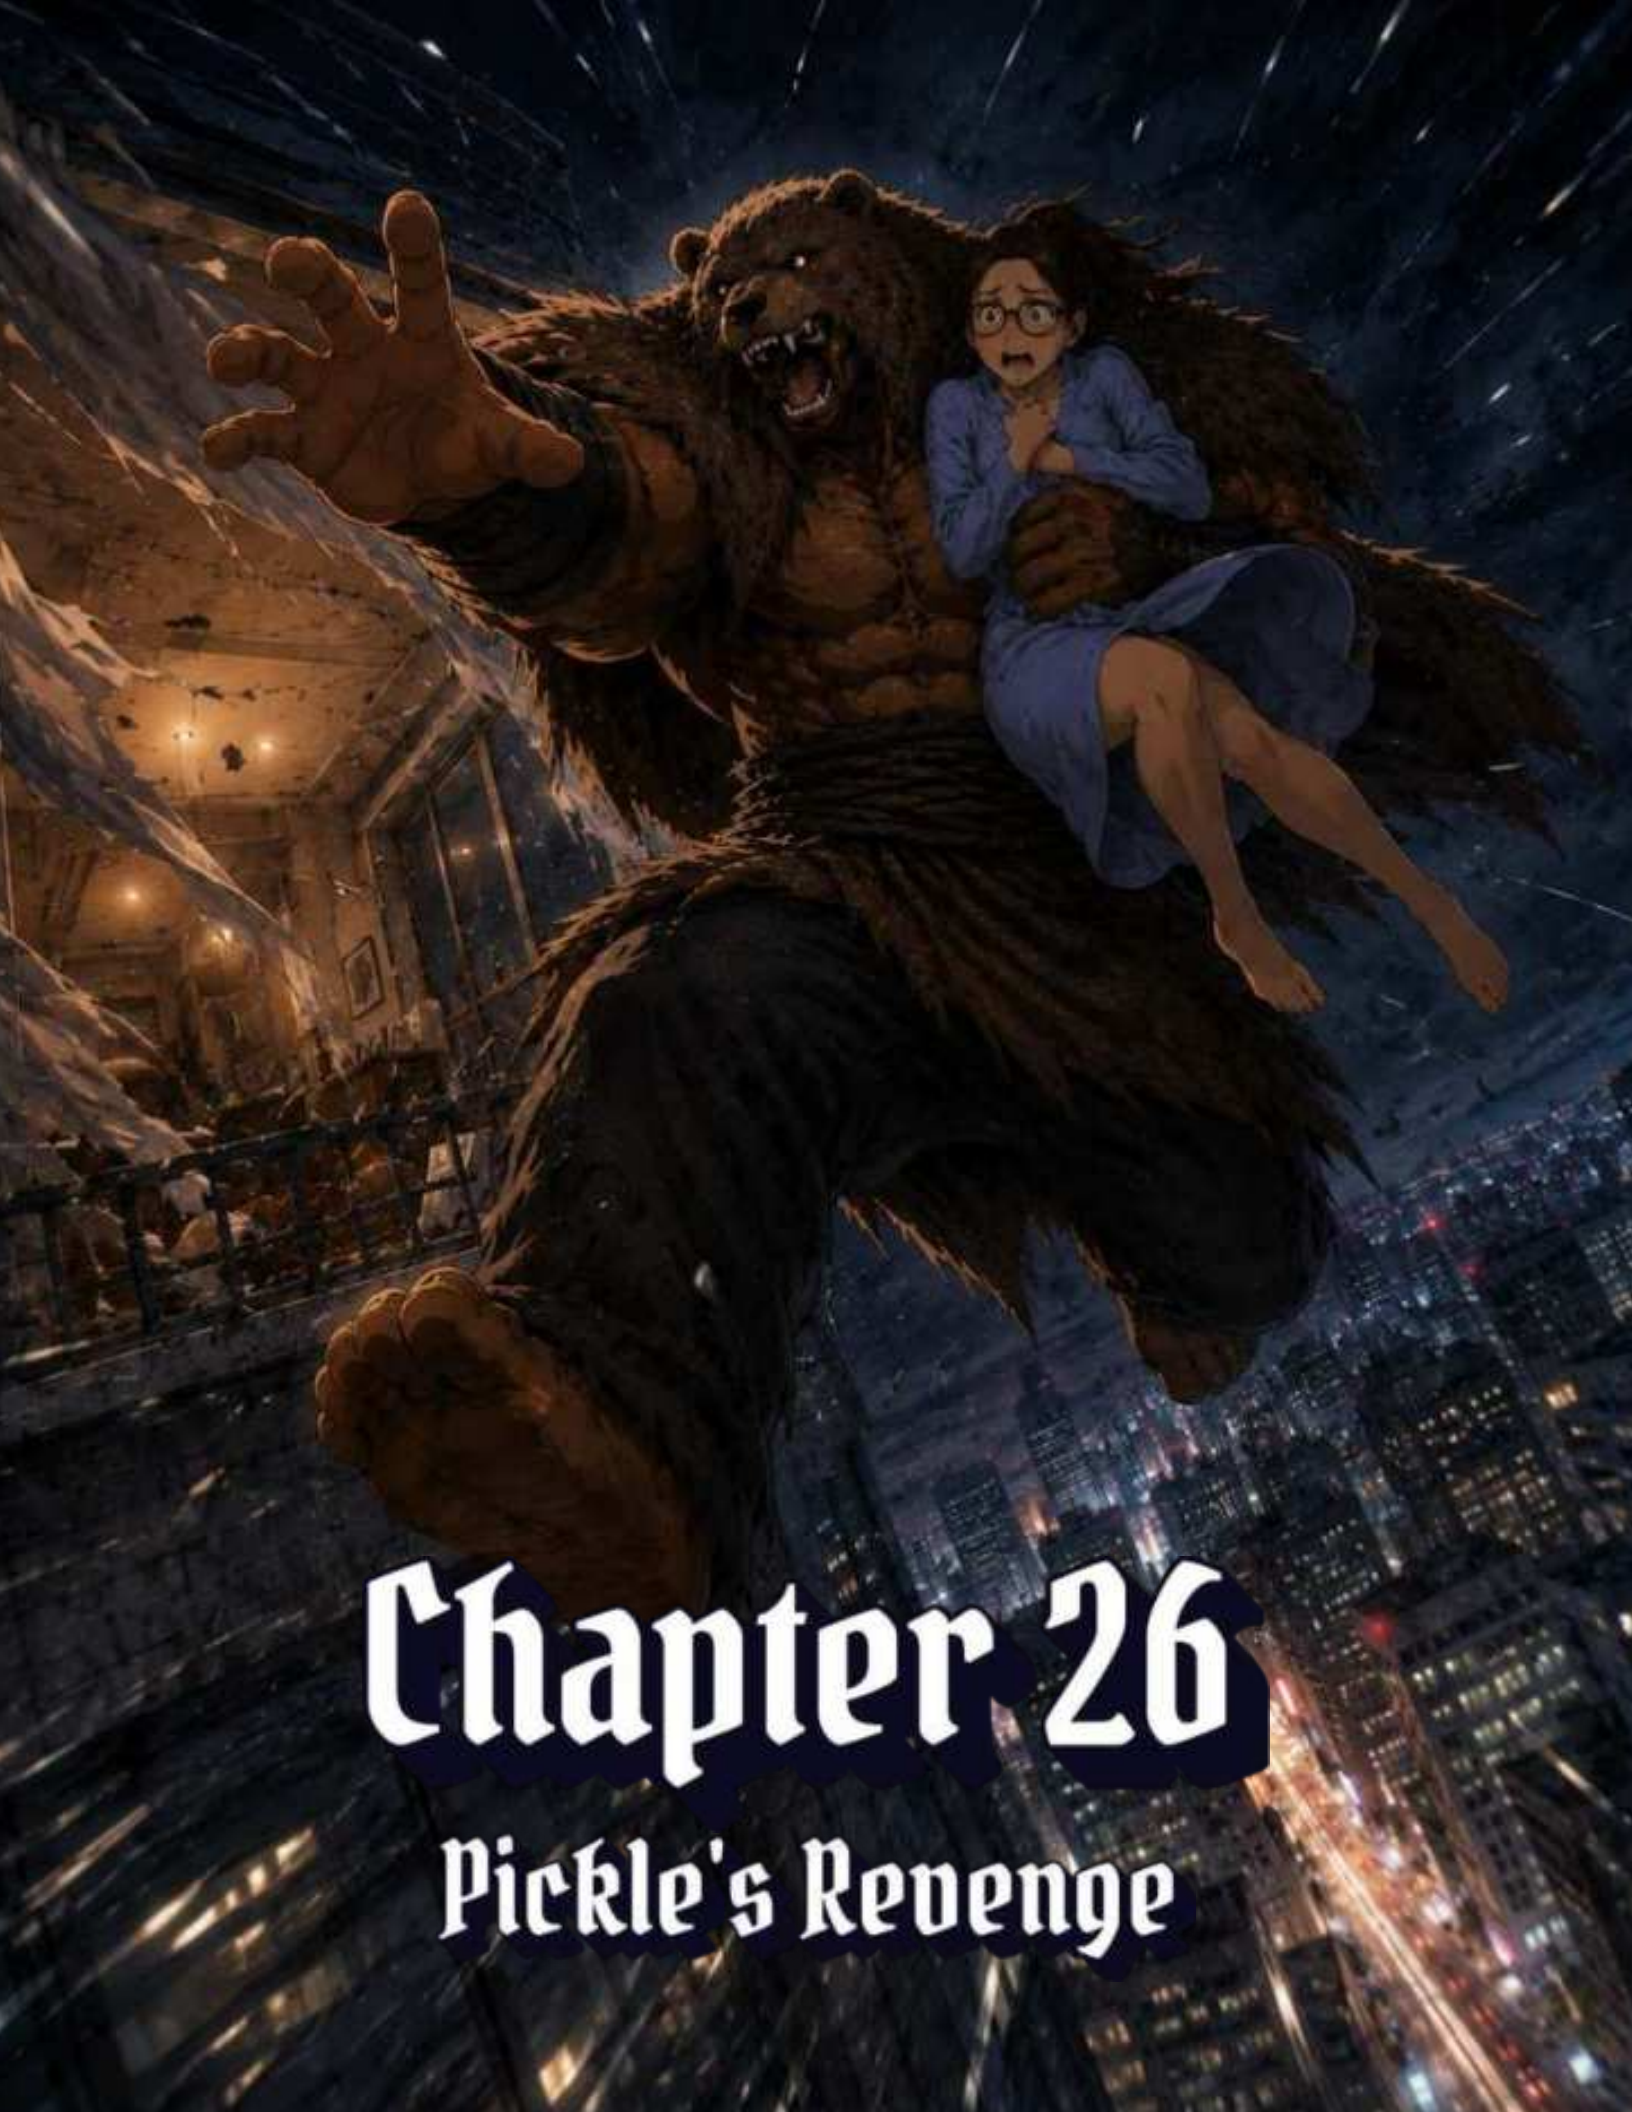

We're going together.

What are you gonna do? Throw me off the balcony?

You're crazy! We have an elevator!

You'll kill us both!

Chapter 26

Pickle's Revenge

That was too easy.

What do you mean?

ring!

That's our signal.
They're on the move

Hang on...
Mayo's calling me?

ring!

It's a trap! Don't come for me!

Mayo! Where are you?

BASTARD!

If I see a cop, she's dead. Come and get her yourself.

What's the plan?

I'm not letting them hurt another friend. They want me.

He won't know I'm with you. That might help.

We gotta get somewhere else and fast. It's an emergency!

Urooom!

I promise.

On the waterfront...

This property is lovely.

The island we're heading to is much better.

That plane is taking us there tonight.

I don't think so, Dad.

What do you think you're doing, Dill.

You've taken everything from me. I'm taking my dignity back.

Note from the Author

Hey Reader!

Just when it seemed like Chad and company had scored a win, Mr. Pickle's evil schemes pulled the rug out from under them. If he can't have his company, then Mr. Pickle will have Romaine and revenge. Chad seems to have a plan up his sleeve as well.

What started as an adaptation of a nineteenth century play has become something greater than I could've imagined. It is incredibly fun to write and I'm falling more in love with these characters with every issue.

Though we have now gone beyond the source material, Cyrano de Bergerac, I see no reason to stop.

I hope you will continue to join me. As always, thank you for reading :)
