Chapter 9: The Tournament

or the way he touched her hand at lunch.

WHEN I SEE THEM TOGETHER, I COULD JUST BURST!

A few days earlier...

Romaine!

Did you hear something?

Chester look out!!

Who's Chester?

I gotcha!

You were jealous over me? So you do love me!

It's not like I risked my life to save him or anything...

I'm all right, in case you're wondering.

So this is the complicated one she was talking about...Chester.

Back in the present...

I hate Mr. Pickle.!

What does that have to do with the copy machine?

I feel so powerless. He's rich, buff, and powerful. I can't even talk to Romaine without choking.

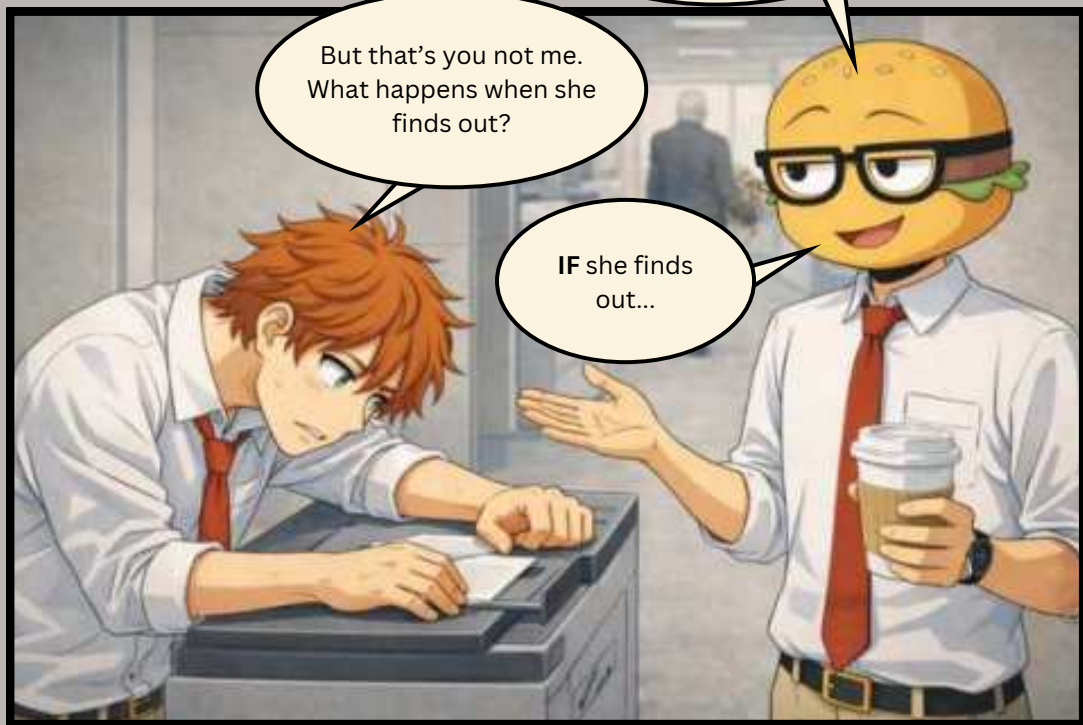

Here we go again...

Look Chester, you're reading the text messages I send her. She's head over heels for you.

But that's you not me. What happens when she finds out?

IF she finds out...

Finds out what?

What are you wearing?

I was playing tennis with your girlfriend!

The Boss wants everyone in the conference hall for fencing. Uniforms are on your desks. Burger head.

Did she say fencing?

Yup.

Chapter 10: The Duel

You can learn a lot about business from sports.

My son, Dill, is an incredible athlete. He'll make a fine businessman.

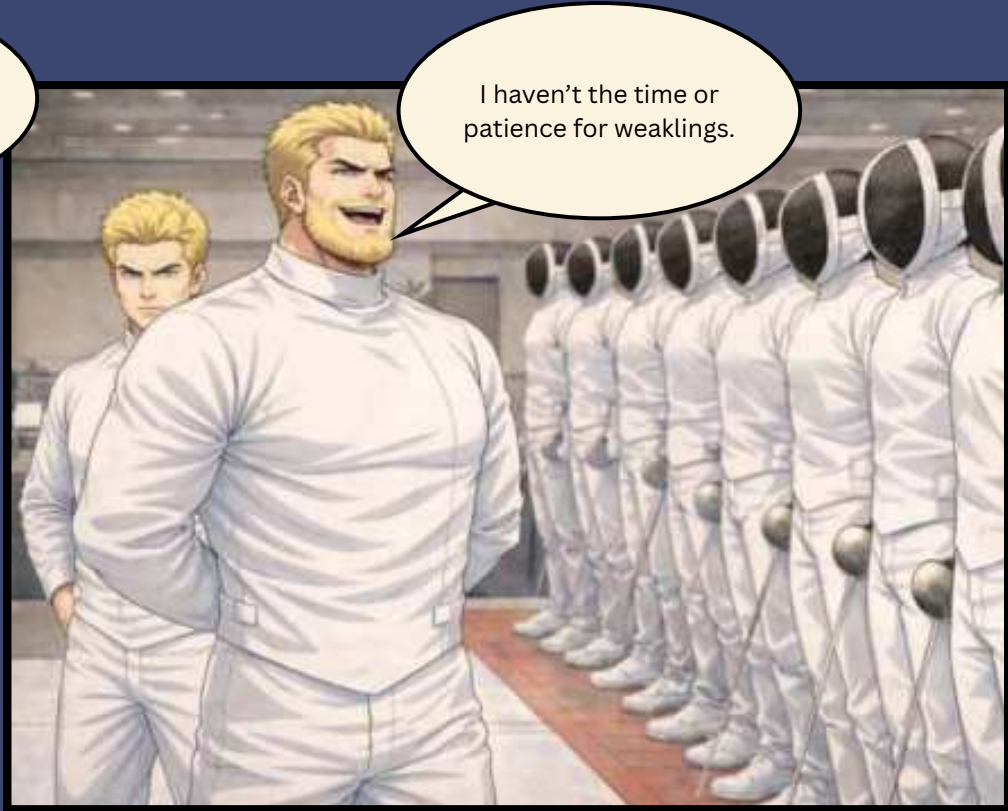

Today, you will all participate in this tournament as a part of training.

You must learn to see clients and customers like opponents to overcome, overpower, and outmaneuver.

Anyone who backs down from this challenge can resign immediately.

I haven't the time or patience for weaklings.

Dill ain't so tough.

It's Chester, right? Are you tough enough to face me?

it would be an honor.

Let's see what you're made of, pretty boy.

I can't watch!

En garde!

This is too much!

Clink!

Sweep!

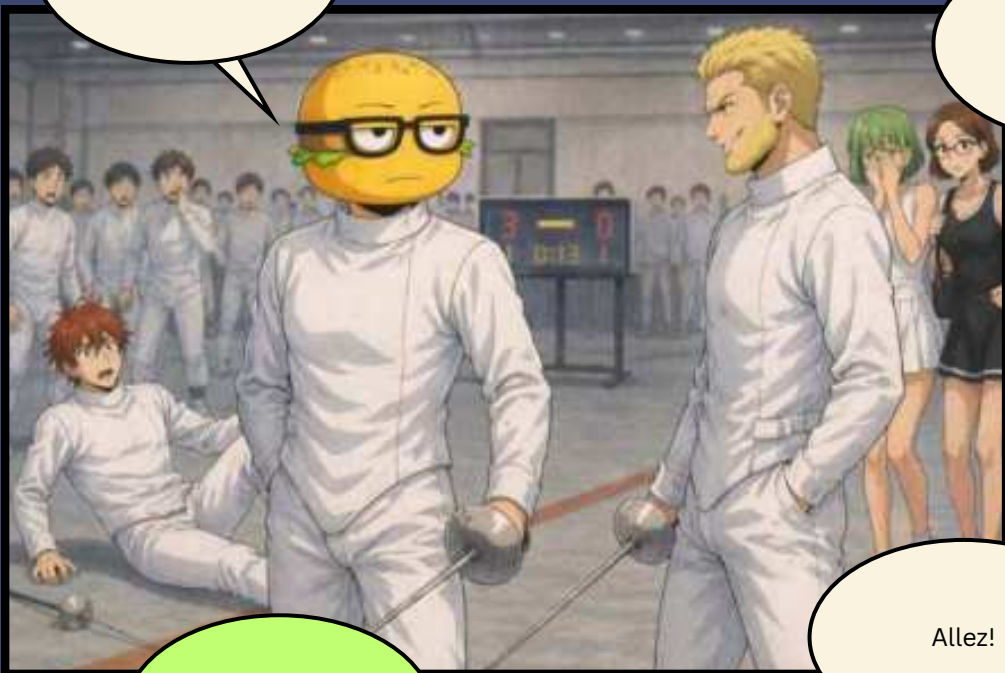

Oof!!

I'm getting used to seeing you on the ground.

GGRRRR!!

What the??

Point!

point!

How??

What an idiot. I better stop this...

TIME OUT!

Chad, come here for a sec?

Huh?

Do you really think it's a good idea beating the boss in front of everyone?

Fine.

That's a good boy.

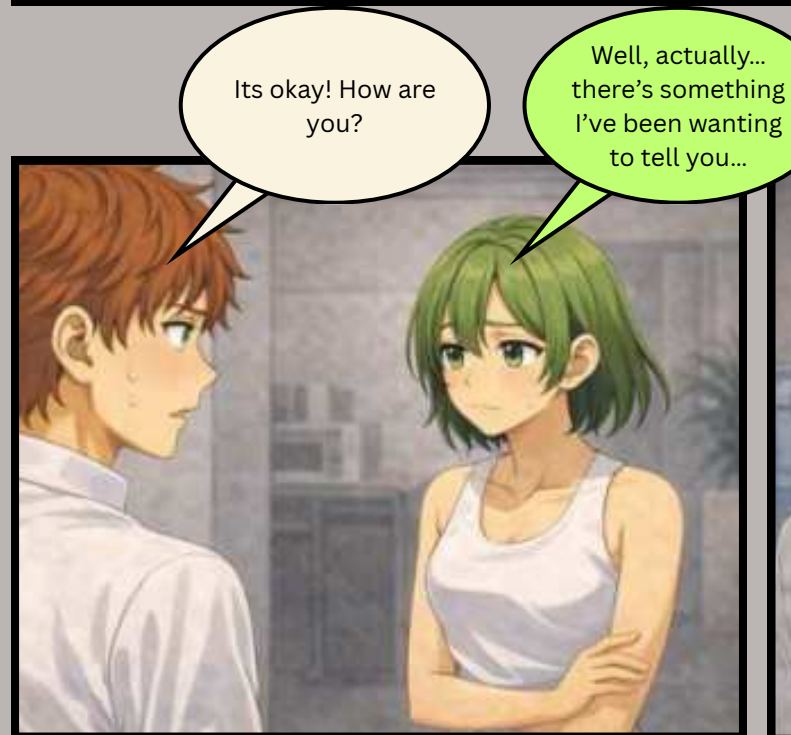

Let him win or he'll fire you and your friend.

And don't make it too obvious.

Bite me!

Point!

I COULD'VE BEAT HIM EASILY!

what happened?

I almost told her everything...

YOU DID WHAT?! THAT WOULD RUIN EVERYTHING!!

She deserves to know the truth!

And someday she will, but we still need more time to whip you into shape or she'll wind up with Mr. Pickle.

I hope you like ice cold champagne.

I've never drank on the job.

We'll make an exception today. Cheers!

who dares interrupt...

I better take this...

Mr. Pepper, how are things going in Japan?

Hey Pickle, I need your best guys to help me with this takeover. Have anyone in mind?

I've got a few in mind.

To be continued...

Note from the Author

Hey Reader!

Things are heating up as we are approaching the end of the story.

In the original play, de Guiche sends Cyrano and Christian to war shortly after the balcony scene.

Instead of sending them to war, Mr. Pickle is sending Chad and Chester to help Mr. Pepper with a hostile takeover in Japan.

In the next issue, our heroes prepare to leave for their trip. What dangers await them in Japan? Will they all return in one piece?

Find out in the next issue!

Thank you for reading :)
