CHAPTER 3:

THE TRUTH HIDDEN IN THE PAST

You're not worth it
old man.

We'll see you around Chad.

and when you lost your weapon, you didn't quit.

I couldn't stand by and watch them crush your fighting spirit

Were you really prepared to take them all?

Not at all. I can barely stand let alone fight.

We were lucky they didn't call my bluff.

My little Ramen House is just over there. Help me out before I fall over.

hiccup...

My bedroom is in the back.

I can train you in the way of the sword.

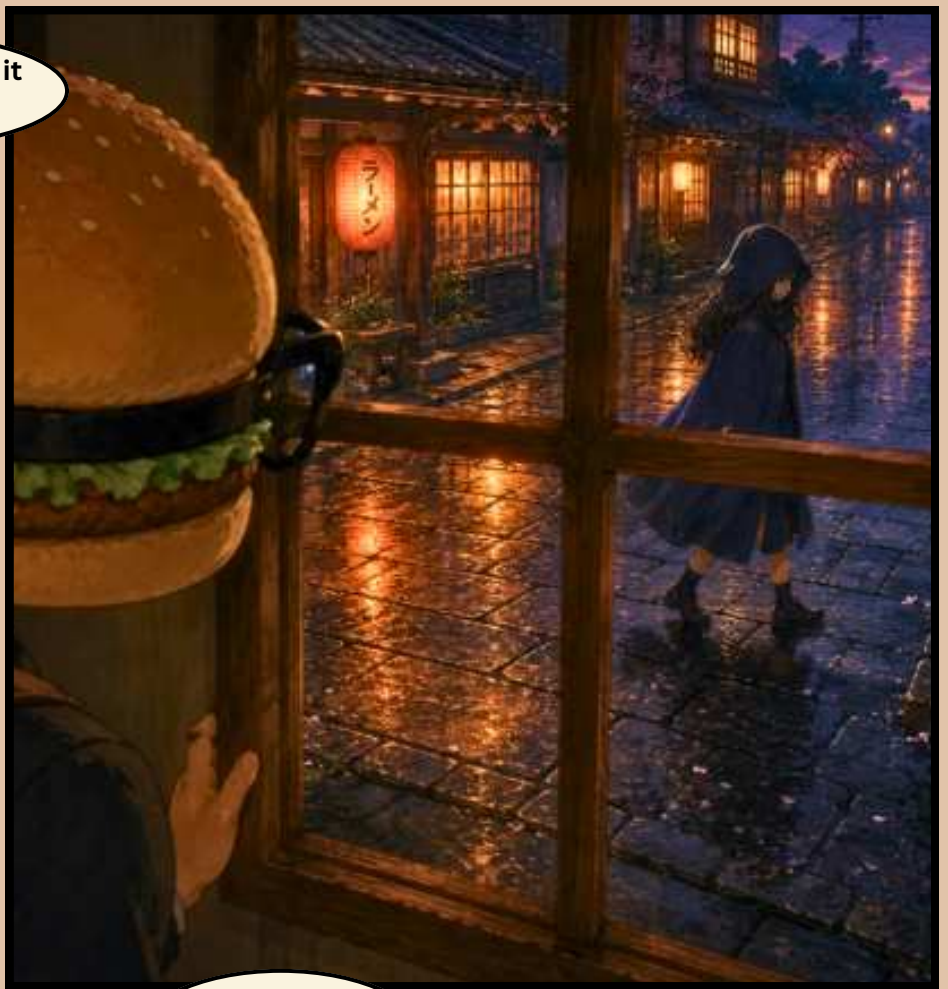

You know the way of the sword?

Woah!

Your family were samurai....

Guess I'll have to ask you more about that tomorrow.

Ume?

Where is she going?

A Pawn Shop?

Something tells me
there is more to this
than meets the eye...

Chapter 4

Family Affair

The next morning...

If you're next words involve aliens, don't bother. I've retired from alien conspiracies.

Aliens? No. I was in the twilight district...

What were you doing in the twilight district?

I was helping this drunk guy home.

And I saw Ume there...

Tell me everything.

This old samurai guy, Miso, chased off Oni.

So I walked him home and saw Ume.

Then I followed her...

Good! Where did she go?

A sketchy looking pawn shop.

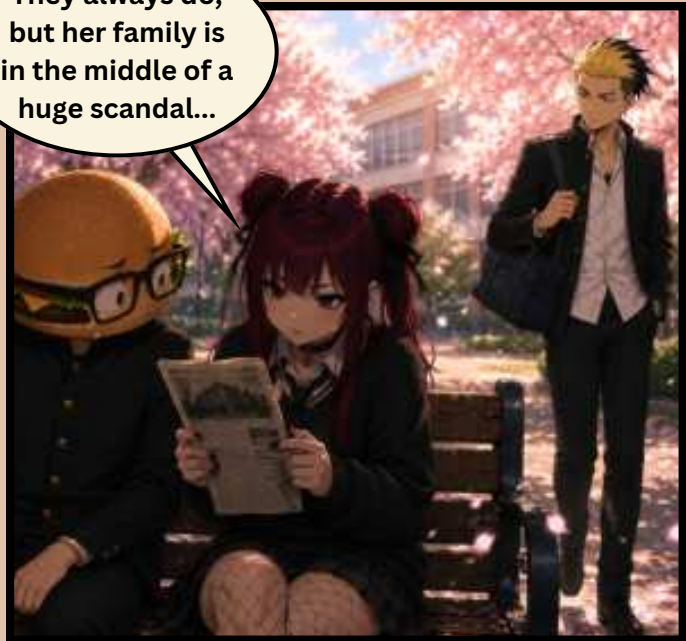

Investigation? Is she in some kind of trouble?

They always do, but her family is in the middle of a huge scandal...

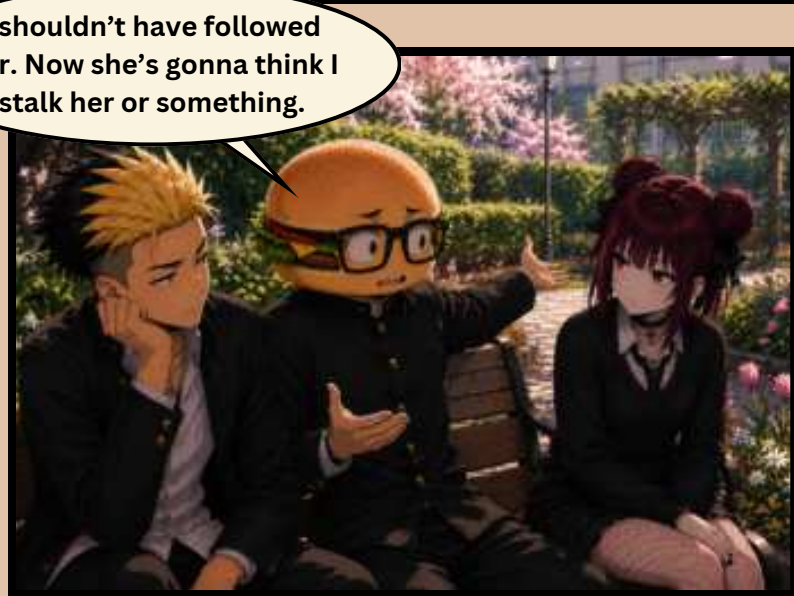

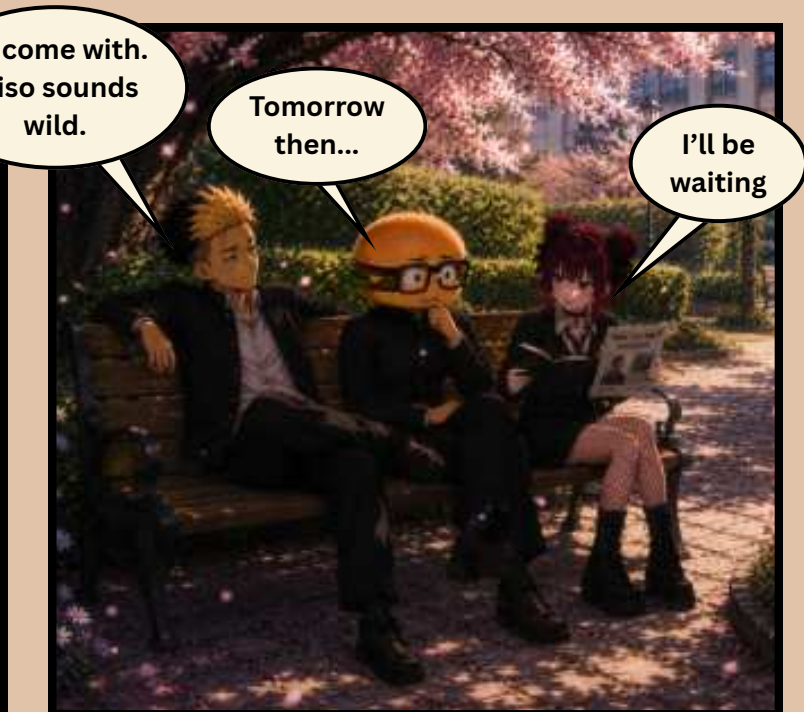

Then he took his own life...

I shouldn't have followed her. Now she's gonna think I stalk her or something.

To be continued...

Note from the Author

Hey Reader!

The mysteries unfolded this issue. Who is the mysterious Miso and what is his connection to samurai? What was Ume doing in the twilight district? What is the scandal involving her family?

Anzu is not going to let this go and now she has Chad to her investigative work. Katsu will keep him company to uncover the secrets around these characters in the wrong side of town.

Next issue Chad and Katsu will train in the way of the sword if Miso is sober enough. Hopefully they will run into Ume to ask her about her nighttime visits to the pawn shop.

Thank you for reading :)
